

COMMUNITY

Woodstock's Thanksgiving embrace

by PAUL SMART Nov 23, 2013 6:30 am

No Comments

A beautiful painting by Hongnian Zhang depicts Thanksgiving dinner at the Woodstock Community Center.

There's a way about Thanksgiving that's purely Woodstock. Most still hold their own family or friends-rich feasts, or juggle invitations outside the home. But many also make sure to set aside some time each Turkey Day to make their way down to the Woodstock Community Center for Family of Woodstock's annual repast, to help prep or serve or decorate or entertain...or just luxuriate in what it's like to see their community all in one place, at its most diverse and best.

The 38th annual Thanksgiving Feast at the Woodstock Community Center on Rock City Road takes place next Thursday, November 28, from 1 p.m.-4 p.m. With support from local businesses and individuals, Family — and its full community of supporters — provides a spectacular feast for all who come, free of charge...and absolutely fresh.

MOUNTAIN LAUREL WALDORF SCHOOL
PARENT/CHILD THROUGH 8TH GRADE

OPEN HOUSE - Jan. 25, 2014 • 10am-NOON
NEW PALTZ - (845) 255-0033

LOWEST PRICED KITCHEN CABINETS

Highest design talent and lower prices than the box stores for semi-custom and custom cabinetry.

FUNCTIONAL SCULPTURE CABINETS & TILES

literally
HUNDREDS of things to do every week
in the print edition of calendar & almanac

<SUBSCRIBE>